The third Real Vienna Real Estate Fair

Real estate waltzes into Vienna

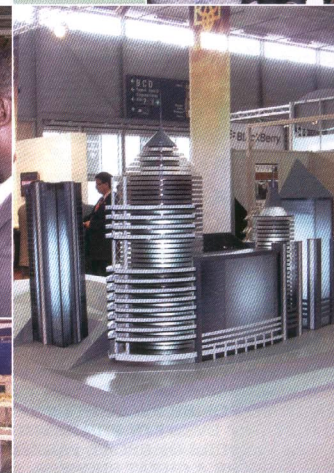

FOR THREE TROPICALLY HOT MAY DAYS, VIENNA CHANGED FROM BEING A CAPITAL CITY OF ELEGANCE AND STYLE INTO A MAJOR CENTRE OF EUROPEAN INVESTMENT AND REAL ESTATE. THE REAL VIENNA FAIR WAS HELD FOR THE THIRD TIME IN THE MESSE VIEN CONVENTION CENTRE

Between May 27th and 29th, 300 exhibitors from 26 European countries met to exchange views, strike up new acquaintances and display their new, most interesting projects within the venue of the Fair. This year's event was dominated by exhibitors from such countries as Romania, Bulgaria and also Russia which, as usual, had the most spectacular projects on display. More than 200 experts appeared on 40 panels to debate the most interesting subjects from the European property market, i.e. meetings within the Property Talks cycle.

The results of the Academic Architecture Prizes competition organized by the Investment Environments design studio (INVI) were also announced at the Vienna meeting. The first prize of EUR 6,000 funded by the Slovak Opera company went to Tomasz Galik of the Warsaw University of Technology. The second prize and a prize of EUR 1,000 went to Andriy Lemishko of the State University of Construction and Architecture in Kharkiv. The prize chosen by the public, voted for during Real Vienna, was awarded to Daria Zybina of Moscow and Ilya Moroz of Kiev. ■ (ZW)
